23. Violation of any Fair rules may be subject to forfeiture of sale proceeds, other fines, or disqualification from Fair participation, penalties assessed at Fair Board discretion. All monies collected from fines will go into a MCFR scholarship fund.

LIVESTOCK RULES:

1. A junior livestock show exhibitor, 4-H or FFA, that enters, shows or sells any species of livestock in any other county fair (4-H or FFA) livestock show division, during the same calendar year, is NOT ELIGIBLE to enter, show or sell in the Junior (4-H or FFA) Livestock Division of the Montrose County Fair.
2. Market animals must be ear tagged and weighed at a time and place designated by the Extension Office and the Fair Board. Market beef must also be ear tagged, weighed and brand inspected. Market swine will be uploaded to 4-H online by 4 pm on Thursday, May 8th. All Market Swine MUST be ear notched prior to county fair. All ear notches must be visible on the pictures when uploaded.
3. Fair Board will not remove any existing ear tags at the designated tag and weigh ins. Participants must remove any non-required tags prior to arriving at the initial tag-in or nomination.
4. For all livestock, the exhibitor must have proof of ownership for at least 90 days prior to the Fair. Rabbits and poultry born after the 90 day period are exempt from this rule. Breeding stock rabbits must be at least 8 weeks of age to be shown.
5. All ear tags must be clean and readable at weigh in.
6. A tattoo day will be scheduled 4 weeks prior to the fair for all market rabbits.
7. Market animals not receiving an ear tag will not be allowed to show or sell at the Fair. Poultry will have their own respective MCFR identification tag.
8. All market livestock must be weighed across the designated scales for each species, on the designated weigh day.
9. All animals not being shown must be removed from the fairgrounds by 9:00pm on Monday of fair.
10. All market animals, except market rabbits, must be castrated prior to the initial weigh in or tag in.
11. No over or under weight animals will be allowed to compete in the carcass contest.
12. Only exhibitors and fair officials will be allowed in the show ring during any fair show.

13. Junior Livestock Show exhibitors are responsible for showing their own livestock in ALL classes they have entered. If they cannot be present during the judging, their livestock may be shown by another 4-H or FFA member with special permission to be granted by the Fair Board. If the exhibitor is unable to be present for the Junior Livestock Sale, their livestock may be exhibited to sell by another 4-H or FFA member with permission of the species superintendent or the 4-H Extension Agent or FFA Advisor.
14. In cases where exhibitors are both 4-H and FFA members, they can show the animals as either 4-H or FFA projects, but not as both.
15. No market classes will be provided for overweight animals. Overweight animals may be shown in showmanship classes, but will not be allowed to sell.
16. All underweight animals are eligible for a feeder class, however, will not be eligible for the Jr. Livestock Sale. No feeder class will be offered Rabbit Division.
17. If an animal does not make weight, you may bring another properly tagged and entered animal from home.
18. All livestock subject to inspection before unloading.
19. No pets will be allowed in any livestock barn or in show ring at any time during fair.
20. An individual may weigh in and tag no more than four market beef, swine, lambs, or goats for the County Fair. You may turn in entries on all four market beef, swine, lambs or goats you weighed and tagged in by the entry deadline. However, you will be limited to weighing and showing no more than two animals of each of the above-named species at the fair. The exception to this rule will be for the Beef Prospect Class which allows two (2) animals in the prospect class and two (2) tagged in animals in the market beef class for a total of four (4) head.

FAMILY/HOUSEHOLD NOMINATIONS

At the time of nomination/enrollment, all market exhibitors may family/household nominate/enroll all animals according to the following guidelines:

1. The exhibitors must all legally reside in the same household and are siblings, stepsiblings, or legally adopted.
2. In order to properly family nominate/enroll an animal, submit a separate nomination/enrollment form for each animal and list each family members name on the top of the form as a possible exhibitor.
3. Exhibitors will be required to declare which family member will be showing which animal at the time of entry. Family/household entries not naming the exhibitor will not be accepted, and those entries will be rejected as erroneous entries and not eligible to show at the Montrose County Fair.

MONTROSE BRED AND FED RULES:

Open to all eligible animals in each class that were born in Montrose County, by an eligible Montrose County Producer/Breeder. The animal must also be born within the appropriate time to be eligible for competition for the current fair year. Beef born in the previous year (being between 12 and 19 months old at fair time). All Montrose County Bred and Fed animals must be branded with a Montrose County Brand for beef, a COMO scrapie tag for sheep and goats. To be considered an eligible brand, Montrose County must be the county in which the ranch head-quarters and the address for the brand are located. Brand eligibility will be determined by the Brand Inspector at the initial weigh-in. If found that Breeder is registered or selling animals to multiple counties as Bred and Fed, they will no longer be a Eligible for Bred and Fed in Montrose County.

1. The animal must be shown by a Montrose County 4-H or FFA member. All animals will be paraded and announced in the show ring. Only the top 2 placing eligible animals will be judged for Champion and Reserve Champion Bred and Fed.
2. The breeder would own the female prior to breeding of the animal that would be shown. The breeder's ability to use the latest breeding technologies should not interfere with this rule with the understanding that to be Bred & Fed eligible 50% of the genetics must originate in Montrose County.

3. If a Bred & Fed animal is selected as the Grand Champion overall, that animal will also be the Grand Champion Bred & Fed title holder. The same will apply for the Reserve Champion overall. The Reserve Champion overall (if a Bred & Fed) will be awarded the Grand Champion Bred & Fed title if the Grand Champion overall is not a Bred & Fed animal.
4. Bred & Fed animals will be specially designated on the Montrose County Jr. Auction Sale Order. The designation will be their MCF tag number, followed by BF. Example 65-BF

ANIMAL HEALTH RULES:

1. It is the responsibility of every 4-H or FFA member to ensure that proper care is taken of their animal according to acceptable methods of good husbandry, as set forth by Colorado State University Extension and Colorado Department of Agriculture. A healthy animal requires sufficient food, water, shelter, and correct health care.
2. No animals from a quarantined herd will be allowed at the County Fair.
3. A health certificate will not be required unless otherwise specified.
4. Animals may be subject to a quarantined lock down on premises if so directed by the State Veterinarians Office.
5. Any animal excused by a veterinarian will not be allowed back on the fairgrounds during the current year of fair.
6. No tranquilizers or anesthetics may be used as a means of calming a show animal. There are no labeled tranquilizers or anesthetics for meat animal use.
7. All market animals administered antibiotics, feed additives or growth stimulants must be removed from such additives or stimulants within the time specified on the label.
8. The following are termed UNETHICAL PRACTICES: Removing, doctoring, or purposely damaging ear tags, ear notches, or tattoos; the use of tranquilizers or anesthetics without a veterinarian's prescription; the use of any injectable steroid sub-stance to enhance muscle development; the use of diuretics to reduce water content of the animal; the use of back pour insecticides as "hair set" for beef cattle; any type of injection where oils, glycerin or like substances are used for body “filling”; external applications of such things as liniments and blistering agents that would cause an edematous condition; use of ice packs or other refrigerants to alter the quality of finish of an animal. Any exhibitor found guilty of any of the above listed unethical practices, or any other practice deemed unethical by the Fair Board, will be disqualified from further classes and the market sale.

9. The Montrose County Fair endorses and supports the USDA Wholesome Meat Act and insists exhibitors are in compliance. All market animal exhibitors will be required to sign a “statement of disclosure” listing all antibiotics, medications, pesticides, or other substances that have been administered to or used on or in the animal 60 days prior to the Junior Livestock Sale.
10. The Montrose County Fair Board reserves the right to screen or test any market animal for drug residues of any nature and take any action deemed appropriate if testing results show any positive residues above naturally occurring levels.
11. No animal entered or exhibited at the Montrose County Fair shall be deprived of water for any period of time. Fresh potable water will be regularly provided for all entered or exhibited animals. Any apparent violation of these rules shall be called to the attention of the species Superintendent or a Fair Board member.

STALLING RULES:

1. Livestock exhibitors are expected to furnish bedding, feed and proper care for their animals.
2. Because of limited space, exhibitors will only be allowed to store feed or tack in livestock pens at the discretion of the Division Superintendent.
3. All stalls, pens, tie areas, etc must be cleaned by 9:00am each day of the Fair. This includes the time period between the sale and market livestock release. Each individual exhibitor will be held responsible for the condition of his or her stall(s) or pen(s). Division Superintendents, 4-H leaders and FFA Advisors have the responsibility to check all stalls, pens, and tie areas each morning. If said areas are not clean, the exhibitor and parents will be notified and given one warning. If the occurrence happens a second time, the exhibitor will be disqualified from further competition in that division and the sale. The exhibitors will be released and removed from the Fairgrounds. Barn Superintendents need to sign off on your pens before premiums can be collected.

4. Division Superintendents are responsible for assigning stalls. Individual stalls or pens within the club group are the responsibility of the club leader. All questions regarding stall or pen assignments should be directed through the club leader and the Division Superintendent. Individual names may not be attached to stalls or pens prior to the posting of stall assignments.
5. If stalls and pens are not cleaned by 5:00 pm on load out day, there will be a $50 clean up fee per stall. The fine will be assessed from sale proceeds or billed to those who do not sell.
6. All species will be penned in their own barn.

FITTING RULE:

As a 4-H project, the Montrose County Fair Board highly encourages the exhibitors to actively participate in the fitting of their animal and to use any help as an educational experience. No artificial hair or hair substance will be permitted (exception in horse division).

JR MARKET LIVESTOCK SALE-REQUIREMENTS FOR EXHIBITORS:

1. All animals eligible for the Montrose County Jr. Livestock Sale are required to have a Bill of Sale at the initial weigh-in or nomination.
2. Sale consigners must comply with all the Junior (4-H and FFA) Division Rules.
3. Exhibitors of market livestock are required to contact at least two prospective Jr. Livestock Sale buyers prior to the County Fair. Verification of this contact must be returned to the Montrose County Extension Office, no later than June 20th 2025.
4. Animals must be shown at the Fair to be eligible to sell at the Junior Livestock Sale.
5. Exhibitors will receive a weigh card at weigh in. The weigh card for the animal you wish to sell must be turned in to the Extension Office, at the latest, one hour after Beef Show, for all species including; market beef, swine, sheep, goats, rabbits and poultry. It is each exhibitor's responsibility to turn in the weigh card to the Extension Office. Failure to do so by deadline will result in a fine of $50.00 and the animal will be placed last in sale order. If no weight card is turned in, the Fair Board will choose the animal to be sold if the exhibitor has more than one.

SALE REGULATIONS:

1. Members will not be allowed to trade animals after the livestock sale. Animals that go through the sale must be the animals delivered to the processor chosen by the buyer. The sale is a terminal sale.
2. Trading of animals will result in exhibitor forfeiting their sale check and proceeds will go into MCFR scholarship fund. Any participant who approaches a buyer requesting special favors or the return of their animal after the sale shall forfeit their sale check and proceeds will go into MCFR scholarship fund.
3. Each 4-H or FFA member will be allowed to sell one animal consignment in the sale, to be selected from beef, sheep, swine, goats, poultry or rabbits. An exception to the rule would be granted to an exhibitor owning a Champion or Reserve Champion animal in more than one of the six species listed in this rule.
4. Animals will not be reweighed at the sale.
5. The sale order for beef, sheep and swine will rotate each year. The sale committee will determine the order for goats, poultry and rabbits. Order in the sale is determined by class placing and the Jr. Livestock Sale Committee.
6. All exhibitors of animals sold in the sale must take an official picture with their animal for buyers plaques.

GRAND AND RESERVE CHAMPIONS:

All Champion and Reserve Champion market beef, sheep, goat, swine, poultry and rabbits are required to sell.

SALE FUNDS:

1. Checks for animals consigned to the Jr. Livestock Sale will be sent out once funds are available and all requirements have been met. Checks must be cashed within 120 days of issue date.
2. Sale consignors will be assessed 5% of the animal's selling price. These funds will be used for advertising, promotions, and general expenses of the livestock sale.

TRANSPORTATION POLICY and LOAD OUT:

1. Livestock that are not going to be sold in the Jr Livestock Sale may be taken home Friday July 25th from 8:00am - 2:00pm. Prior to removing the animal the animals ear tag must be verified by either the superintendent or a Fair Board member.
2. Transportation to packing plants will only be provided for animals sold through the Jr. Livestock Sale. Exhibitors must make their own arrangements for transportation and slaughter of all other animals.
3. After the sale, or as each animal is sold, exhibitors will be required to take the animal back to their original stall space to leave on exhibit until market livestock animals are loaded on Sunday morning. Beef exhibitors or a designated representative are required to be present at loading. Sheep and swine exhibitors are not required to be at loading, but you are required to clean all pens after they have been vacated.
4. Stall clean up may not begin prior to load out completion and must be done by 2:00 P.M. Sunday, July 27th. Check with Division Superintendent for schedule.

JUNIOR DIVISION AWARDS

1. Ribbons will be awarded 1st through 6th place.
2. Judges reserve the right to not award 1st place to single entry classes if the entry is not of 1st place merit.
3. Grand and Reserve Champion winners in each division will receive a rosette ribbon.
4. Special awards in each division are listed in the respective rules for that division.
5. Division Grand Champions will receive a special award to be determined by the Fair Board.

DRESS CODE RULES:

The following dress code is to be followed by all 4-H and FFA members as well as adult leaders, parents, and all participants. Deviations from the dress code will result in a request for that person to change. Dress code is not subject to personal interpretation. An adult leader, advisor or chaperone may deem clothes inappropriate. Some activities or events will have specific dress requirements that will need to be followed.

OBJECTION RULE:

All Complaints must be submitted in writing, and must be signed and dated by the complainant, accompanied with a $75 cash deposit. All complaints will be examined within 24 business hours by a representative from the Montrose County Attorney's office, and a written ruling will issue. If the complaint is sustained, the deposit will be returned to the complainant. If the complaint is found to be without merit, the deposit is forfeited. All decisions are final.

PARKING AND CAMPING RULES:

1. All trailers need to be parked in the designated trailer parking area.

UTV RULES:

2. Only adults 21 and older, or 4-H member parents, with permit and signed waiver.
3. Permit Fee $10 prior to Fair, $50 late permit fee. Number will be assigned for placement on UTV.
4. UTV operating without assigned number visible, will be subject to $50 late permit fee or removal from grounds.
5. UTV shall only be used for feed and equipment transfer by 4-H member adult.
6. Anyone under 21 operating UTV will be subject to UTV removal from grounds.

BARN CURFEW RULES:

For security reasons, all livestock barns will be closed at 9pm or one hour after the end of the evenings' events, whichever is later. Barns will remain closed until 6am. Security will be making rounds throughout the night. No one, except security personnel, is allowed in the barn while it is closed. Please make sure your animals are properly secured when leaving for the
